

Chuck Sizemore

Campaign Consultant | Synnovate Group

EDUCATION & CONSULTING EXPERIENCE:

Chuck has a bachelor's degree from Yale University and has been heavily involved in fundraising consulting in higher education and healthcare for 20 years. His rich experience brings a proven senior professional to the Synnovate Group consulting team, with particular focus on strategic planning, support and development training for comprehensive campaigns.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE:

Chuck Sizemore began his development career in 1979 at Yale University, from which he graduated in 1972. As associate director of development, Chuck was responsible for prospective major gift donors in the mid-Atlantic region and several sciences and athletics capital projects.

In 1985, he became director of individual giving at the Stanford University Graduate School of Business. During his nearly eight-year tenure at the GSB, Chuck also served as director of development and associate dean for external relations. As associate dean, he oversaw all fundraising programs, as well as the GSB Alumni Association and the School's news and publications office. While at Stanford, he also advised the University as a member of the post-campaign planning committee, subsequent to Stanford's $1.1 billion Centennial Campaign.

Chuck served as vice president for university relations at Santa Clara University from 1992-1996. While at Santa Clara, he guided the University's $125 million comprehensive campaign, which concluded successfully at $134 million in December 1995. He was responsible for all development, alumni relations, and communications activities and managed a staff of 65 FTE. He was also a member of the University's management team and participated in all institutional strategic and tactical decision-making.

Chuck joined Marts & Lundy, Inc. as a senior consultant in July 1996 and served two terms on the Marts & Lundy, Inc. board of directors (1997-2001 and 2004-2006). From 2003-2006, Chuck served as the Firm's practice group co-leader for healthcare clients.

In 2017, Chuck joined Synnovate Group as a campaign and development consultant after successfully running his own consulting practice for 10 years out of his home in Palo Alto, CA. One of Chuck's recent clients was Weber State University, which he helped in planning and launching a successful campaign in 2008. WSU succeeded in raising $164 million over the 2008-2016 campaign period.
